

DOXEY OF DOXEY IN SEIGHFORD, STAFFS

ARMS:

CREST:

Hervey Doxey of Doxey in Seighford, Staffs
(a minor) 1206

Felicia Doxey of Doxey in Seighford, Staffs
(living) 29 Oct 1208

Hugh Doxey of Doxey in Seighford, Staffs c1200- m Alice -----
(living) 1224-7 [SHC 1882 231]
d a1230

Robert Doxey of Doxey in Seighford, Staffs c1240-
(held 0.2KF in Doxey) *1285

Ralph Doxey of Doxey in Seighford, Staffs c1280-
(a valet [under age], Staffs) *1293

At Easter 1303 Richard de Doxey and his wife Margaret granted the manor of Doxey etc to Robert de Haughton who granted them back with warranty to Richard and Margaret at the service of a rose yearly ... [see below]

Margaret Doxey

m1 Sir John Bracebridge of Kingsbury, Warwicks c1270-a1316 [1917-8 71 quoting Addl. Charters BM 19988] [XI 110]); (and had chn: John b c1306; (aged 10) 1315-6
m2 Sir Thomas Haughton of Haughton, Staffs Knight 1288-a1369

(Silkmore) Hugh de Dokesey (or Doxey) was a tenant of the barony of Stafford in Silkmore early in the 13th century, and his widow, Alice, was seeking custody of his lands in 1230. In 1255 another Hugh de Doxey conveyed two crofts in Silkmore to Walter, master of the hospital of St. Lazarus, Radford, half the land to be held in free alms for ever by his successors. A later master, William de Madeley, exchanged a piece of marsh (mora) here for land in Forebridge with his overlords, Margaret Lady Stafford and her second husband Sir Thomas de Pipe, who conveyed it in 1320 to Richard son of Thomas Wenlock of Stafford, together with another piece of marsh in the same place. Richard also held at this time a piece of marsh of Margaret de Doxey and Thomas de Halghton or Haughton (her husband). Thomas de Halughton (or Haughton) and his wife Margaret still held demense land in Silkmore in 1335, when they were granted free warren there. (fn. 331)

Sir Thomas Haughton of Haughton, Staffs Knight 1288-a1369

a1304-a1369

b and c 29 Aug 1288 High Offley [POA]

m1 Joan de Ockendon dau and heir of Sir Nicholas de Ockendon Knight of Ockedon, Essex

1266-1320

m2 p1316 Margaret ----- [? dau of ----- Ferrers]; m1 Sir John Bracebridge of Kingsbury, Warwicks c1270-a1316 [1917-8 71 quoting Addl. Charters BM 19988] [XI 110]); (and had chn: John b c1306; (aged 10) 1315-6

---

—

CHECK SHC 1882 111 172 (11/1/04)

---

—

DOXEY OF LEEKFRITH IN LEEK, STAFFS

ARMS:

CREST:

Thomas Doxey of Leekfrith in Leek, Staffs c1570-....
chn: Elizabeth Doxie m Samuel Shipton of Alderley, Cheshire c1605-.... QV

---

*1664/1700(11/1/04)

---

—